

Liberty Swing

Roma Street Parkland is home to the colourful Liberty Swing, giving wheelchair-bound visitors the opportunity to experience the joy of having a swing. Located near the Information Booth the Liberty Swing is fun and easy to use, meeting all Australian standards and safety requirements.

The Liberty Swing has proved a sensational addition to the already existing playground at the Parkland. Visitors can also enjoy access to a variety of other services and facilities, as Parkland pathways and toilets are wheelchair-friendly and disabled parking is also available nearby.

A key is required to access and use the Liberty Swing. This key can be obtained from the Parkland Information Booth or from Parkland security officers. Photo identification is required when borrowing the key. Internal vehicle access can be arranged by phoning the Administration Office on 07 3006 4545 prior to your visit.

The Liberty Swing is used on a first-in first-served basis and generally the key will be issued for a period of 1 hour as other users may be waiting to use the swing. Please note that no bookings can be made. If you plan to use the swing regularly, please contact us to find out how you can acquire your own Liberty Swing key.
